

ANTETOKOUNBROS ACADEMY PROGRAM TERMS & CONDITIONS

Version November, 2023

AntetokounBros Academy Program Description

The Program – What It Is

The AntetokounBros Academy program (the “Program”) is a community program that combines basketball training and educational inspiration to unlock development opportunities, targeted to underserved boys and girls, aged 10 to 17 years old.

The Program involves up to 90 minutes of basketball training sessions, twice a week. It has a select number of participants: 50 athletes are trained at each of the Program’s two training locations – Sepolia Court and Ellinorosso Court (100 athletes per year, total).

In addition to this core basketball training, the Program also features athlete clinics, tournament events, a series of mentoring workshops and an inspirational speech, plus basketball school sessions that athletes and junior trainers must also attend as Program participants, so that they are provided with the motivation they need to develop. Transportation will be provided by AntetokounBros Academy from each court to and from the location where the mentoring sessions will be held.

Academy participants will be offered basketball and educational pathway opportunities as part of the Program.

The Program also offers up to twelve trainee placements, for women and men aged 18 to 25 years old, on the coaching team for the 2023-2024 season. Applicants with basketball playing or coaching experience and or experience with children will be preferred. Also applicants should speak at least two of the following languages: Greek, English, and French (additional knowledge of Farsi and/or Arabic is preferred).

Training Courts

Sepolia Court: Manitaki 46, Athens 104 43

Ellinorosson Court: Chalepa 2, Athens 115 25

Number of Participants:

1. For Athletes:

Sepolia Court: up to 50 participants

Ellinorosson Court: up to 50 participants.

More than a quarter of the Academy’s total membership capacity (more than 25 memberships) will be allocated to immigrant and refugee applicants, provided they meet the set social and economic criteria outlined in Appendix I.

2. For Junior Coaches:

Throughout the season, up to twelve Junior Coach positions are on offer.

Program Duration

The season starts in November 2023 and ends on June 30, 2024. All applications submitted between September 11 and October 10, 2023, will be considered for this upcoming season, starting in November 2023.

Athletes' participation in every training and educational session is mandatory, and free of charge.

Athletes' transfer to the court and back, and to Basketball League game visits, will be made using their own means of transport, except in the case of educational sessions for which transportation to and from the venue will be provided, leaving from and returning to designated meeting points at each court.

Participation Mechanism

– Everyone has the right to apply and submit a participation form, provided that:

- a. the candidate athlete is between 10 and 17 years old.
- b. the candidate junior coach is between 18 and 25 years old and has basketball experience; and
- c. they submit a valid application form.

– Submission options for both candidate athletes and junior coaches:

- Via a digital form that needs to be filled out by the candidate (or by their parent or guardian, in the event the candidate is a minor) on the Academy website – antetokounbrosacademy.net. Applicants must submit all required documentation to benefit from the points accrued from the socio-economic criteria outlined in Appendix I (Athlete Evaluation Criteria). All relevant documentation must be sent to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net, with the name of the candidate and their SSA number (in Greek "AMKA") in the subject line.
- Via a PDF application form that needs to be filled out by the candidate (or by their parent or guardian, in the event the candidate is a minor) and sent to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net. To be valid, a PDF application form must be accompanied by the required documentation outlined in Appendix I (Athlete Evaluation Criteria).
- Through submission of an application form and all required documentation (see Appendix I – Athlete Evaluation Criteria) in print format, sent by post to the following address: Basketball Incubation, 24 Evrota St., Kifissia, 145 64.

– Submission Period

Application submission period for athletes and junior coaches: September 11 to October 10, 2023

Evaluation Process

Athletes

Socio-economic Criteria Evaluation

Athletes who meet one or more of the Program's set age, gender, socio-economic category, and residency criteria will earn points that will be added to their final scores (see Appendix I – Athlete Evaluation Criteria). Evaluation Period: October 10-17, 2023. Up to 100 candidate athletes will be selected based on their cumulative scores and invited to attend the AntetokounBros Academy; they will then be asked to submit all the documentation needed to validate their participation (Image Release Form, and Athlete Health Card completed and signed by a cardiologist). All successful candidates will be notified by email, SMS, or over the phone by November 2nd, 2023.

Junior Coaches

Candidates aged between 18 and 25 years old who meet one or more of the criteria set out in Appendix II: Junior Trainer Evaluation Criteria for the Program.

Up to 30 candidates will be selected for the upcoming season and invited for a personal interview with the Coaching Team.

Evaluation Period: October 10-17, 2023.

1. General Participation Terms

a) Athletes/junior coaches are solely responsible for their attendance, arrival, and departure from the courts, in accordance with the AntetokounBros Academy schedule.

b) Athletes' transfer to and from the courts, and to Basketball League game visits that will take place, will be made using their own means of transport, except in the case of educational sessions for which transportation to and from the venue will be provided by the Program, leaving from and returning to designated meeting points at each court. In case of transportation provided by the Program, Participants and/or Parents or legal guardians agree that such transportation is used at their own risk, and CAFF will not be responsible for any accident, injuries, damages, losses, or any other harm that may occur before, during, or after the trip, with the exception of cases of intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

d) AntetokounBros Academy has the right to change the dates of a training schedule, cancel a course or change a venue that may be necessary for any reason. In case of any change to the training schedule, court location, or match, athletes and junior coaches will be notified in advance (if this is feasible) by email or SMS sent to the contact details provided on their application forms or posted on the AntetokounBros Academy website.

e) In the event of loss of personal items and/or money at the courts during training sessions, events, participants' transportation to and from mentorings or other Program's events, AntetokounBros Academy and CAFF bear no responsibility for any compensation. It is strongly advised that participants do not bring valuable items and/or money with them.

f) The training sessions are closed sessions that only admit the players. No video recording, pictures or photography is permitted during the training sessions.

2. Application – Participation

- Parents or legal guardians must apply on behalf of the athlete. The AntetokounBros Academy will not knowingly accept any application form or accompanying personal information, including medical information, without the authorization of each athlete's designated parent or legal guardian on all official application documents.
- Application forms must be submitted within the specified timeline outlined above. Forms sent by post, must be delivered by the given deadline. Any application forms received after the deadline will not be considered.
- Applicants that meet one or more of the socio-economic evaluation criteria will be allocated bonus points, provided they submit the necessary and official certifying documentation for each of the criteria they meet (see Appendix I: Athlete Evaluation Criteria, and Appendix II: Junior Trainer Evaluation Criteria).
- Application forms submitted without any of the required documents, or with non-official documents, or with incorrect documents will result in the submission being marked as incomplete and, as such, will not be considered for evaluation.
- Application Priority: Any applications received from past season participants (2019–2023) will be accorded secondary priority in relation to new applicants, with their attendance subject to there being free places available to be filled.
- The 100 applicants who qualify for the AntetokounBros Academy will be invited to participate and are required to respond and accept the invitation within one (1) day from its receipt. The invitation will be communicated to the applicants or their parents/legal guardians via the phone or email declared on their application form. In the event an applicant fails to respond within one (1) day, the invitation will be offered to another applicant drawn from the runner up pool.
- CAFF is a global social impact organization created by the Antetokounmpo family. The Program of AntetokounBros Academy is part of CAFF's vision and will be entitled to use audio-visual material produced during the Program as described herein, for the promotion of the Foundation's activation.

For this purpose, applicants accepted to the Program will need to fill in and sign the Image Release Form attached herein, addressed to CAFF, and send it, to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net in order for the Program's invitation to be valid.

- NIKE Retail B.V. (NIKE) will act as a Program sponsor, only. In light of this, NIKE will be entitled to use audio-visual material produced during the Program, as described herein, for the promotion of their sponsorship and this collaboration. For this purpose, applicants accepted to the Program will need to fill in and sign the Image Release Form attached herein, addressed to NIKE, and send it, along with their message accepting their invitation to the Program, to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net in order for such invitation to be valid. As a Program sponsor, NIKE has no responsibility for the running or operation of the Program (save for the Pathway opportunities, where applicable) and NIKE shall have no liability whatsoever to any athlete, junior coach or any other individual, arising out of or in connection with that individual's participation in or attendance at the Program (save in respect of death or personal injury resulting from NIKE's negligence and to the extent such cannot be excluded by applicable law).

- Vioiatriki Wellness will provide cardiological medical examinations required to enable the participations of the Program participants, and Vioiatriki Wellness will provide all necessary physiologic and physical parameter assessments, along with the physical fitness evaluations of the Program participants and the wellness and dietary guidance to them, to the participants in the Program. Vioiatriki Wellness will be entitled to use audiovisual material produced during the Program as specifically described herein for the promotion of this collaboration. For this purpose, applicants accepted to the Program will need to fill in and sign the Image Release Form attached herein, addressed to Vioiatriki Wellness, and send it, along with their message accepting their invitation to the Program, to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net in order for such invitation to be valid.
- ACG will carry out the life skills and leadership development workshops of the Program and will be entitled to use audiovisual material produced during the Program as described herein for the promotion of this collaboration. For this purpose, applicants accepted to the Program will need to fill in and sign the Image Release Form attached herein, addressed to ACG and send it, along with their message accepting their invitation to the Program, to apply@antetokounbrosacademy.net in order for such invitation to be valid.
- In the event a parent or guardian displays improper behavior, an athlete may be expelled from the AntetokounBros Academy. Improper behavior is defined as any action or omission not in accordance with the AntetokounBros Academy's ethos and includes – among other things – spectator behavior in the stands, behavior towards other AntetokounBros Academy athletes and their parents/guardians, or those of other basketball academies, towards AntetokounBros coaches and staff, or towards any other third party.
- Athlete/junior trainer non-compliance with AntetokounBros Academy policies and rules may result in their expulsion from the Program (Appendix III).
- All registering athletes/junior trainers will receive AntetokounBros Academy attire free of charge. Athletes and junior trainers are obliged to wear AntetokounBros Academy attire at every event/training session and tournament match, and to keep this attire clean and in good condition.
- In the event the provided AntetokounBros Academy attire is lost, the Academy is not obliged to replace the lost clothes/items.

3. Terminating Participation in the AntetokounBros Academy

- In the event an athlete/junior coach decides to terminate their participation in the Program, they will have to communicate their decision in writing via an email sent to info@antetokounbrosacademy.net, mentioning the reason for their decision, and the AntetokounBros Academy will then delete the athlete/junior coach from their records.
- In the event of an athlete/junior coach's absence, the athlete's parents/guardian, or the junior coach themselves, must inform the AntetokounBros Academy in advance via an email sent to info@antetokounbrosacademy.net, including the reason for the athlete/junior coach's absence, and are obliged to submit any requested certifying documents (i.e. doctor's letter, depending on the case).
- In the event of an athlete/junior coaches' frequent absence, or absence for reasons other than health or justified issues, this will be a matter for the AntetokounBros Academy's Head Coach to decide whether the athlete/junior coach will be allowed to continue at the Academy, or whether their participation will be terminated.
- In the event an athlete/junior coach's participation is terminated, the AntetokounBros Academy retains the right to replace the expelled athlete/junior coach with another candidate drawn from the runner up pool for the remainder of the training season. In such an event, the candidate at the top of the runner up list will be selected. In the event of a tie, the candidate who submitted their application first will be given priority.
- Expelled athletes/junior coaches are obliged to return all AntetokounBros Academy attire provided to them, as this remains AntetokounBros Academy property.
- In the event of improper behavior on the part of parents, guardians, athletes, or junior coaches, the AntetokounBros Academy reserves the right to expel the athlete/junior coach or to deny parents/guardians access to watch the training sessions and/or tournament matches or other Program events. Improper behavior is defined as any action or omission not in accordance with the AntetokounBros Academy's ethos and philosophy and includes – among other things – spectator behavior in the stands, behavior towards other AntetokounBros Academy athletes and their parents/guardians, or those of other basketball academies, towards AntetokounBros coaches and staff, or towards any other third party.
- Any non-compliance by athletes, their parents/guardians, or junior coaches to AntetokounBros Academy policies and rules, or to the instructions of Academy staff, can result in the expulsion of the athlete/junior coach without any prior notice, and without any responsibility for compensation.

4. Health Issues

- By submitting the athlete/junior coach application form and agreeing to these Terms and Conditions, the participant agrees to take part at their own risk, or that of their legal guardian if the participant is aged under 18 years old.
- Applicants shall be and shall declare that they are fit and not experiencing any health concerns or injuries that will be aggravated by participating in the Academy's training program. Any injury or illness must be disclosed by the participant/legal guardian to the Academy's staff at the time of application and before the start of the Academy program. Should this injury or illness be deemed a health and safety risk to the participant or to other Program participants, the Academy reserves the right to exclude the applicant from the evaluation process, and to exclude the participant from participating any further in the AntetokounBros Academy program in the event an applicant is among the finalists.
- Athlete applicants invited to enroll in the AntetokounBros Academy must submit an Athlete Health Card filled out and signed by a cardiologist, and an Athlete's Medical History Document. Athlete and/or junior coach applicants may be asked to comply with instructions and measures that may be deemed necessary or may be imposed, such as the submission of further medical documentation, in accordance with Hellenic National Public Health Organization (EODY) and General Secretariat of Sports (GGA) directives for combatting Covid-19; the Academy shall provide the necessary information and instructions with respect to any additional procedures or measures relating to this matter.
- In the event a shortlisted athlete's parent/legal guardian cannot provide the required documents by their own means, the athlete shall be obliged to undergo a health check provided by the AntetokounBros Academy in order to be in position to participate. Athletes who do not appear for their scheduled health check appointments will invalidate their application and be replaced by the athlete next in line on the runner up list.
- Participants, parents and/or legal guardians acknowledge and accept that the AntetokounBros Academy coaches, staff, contractors, volunteers and/or any medical staff provided by the Academy do not bear any responsibility for any injury, illness, theft, or detriment that the participant may suffer while participating in the Academy Program.

5. Video Recording – Photo Shooting

- As part of the Program, the Academy will be videoing and photographing the participants at training sessions, educational sessions, and any other event organized for the purposes of observing and assessing the participants' sporting performance, and for promoting and raising awareness about the Program and the related activities of its partners, as well as for archival purposes.
- The Academy and its partners assume all rights relating to or arising from said audio-visual material. For this reason, photo shooting and video recording of any kind at the AntetokounBros Academy Program is expressly prohibited without the Academy's prior written consent and permission.

- By participating in the Program, parents/legal guardians and participants in the Program acknowledge and grant the right to the Academy and the Program's partners (CAFF, Nike, Vioiatriki Wellness, ACG and implementation entity, Eurohoops) to create by their own means, collect, archive, present/communicate and broadcast the images and the videorecording to the public, via any means of broadcasting, as this material is obtained by means of photography and videography as specifically mentioned herein, undertaken as part of the Academy Program, and any reproductions or adaptations of this content, in Greece or abroad, for the aforementioned purposes and for innumerable number of uses/ways of exploitation, for the entire duration of the copyright protection as per the legislation in force. Use may include (but is not limited to) printed and online promotional material, publication on the websites and social media accounts of the Academy and its partners or via other public means of mass communication, and press releases.
- The AntetokounBros Academy will send all information relating to the Program and any other matter to the participants via the email addresses they have declared to the Academy.

6. Personal Data Protection

The Academy and all cooperating Program partners shall protect all data provided and especially the personal data of minors in the context of the Program in accordance with the applicable legislation currently in force (mainly Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation), Greek Law 4624/2019 – hereinafter the "Legislation").

D. Legal Basis for Data Processing

The legal basis for the processing of personal data is that of consent (article 6 par. 1 a of the GDPR).

E. Information on Recipients of the Personal Data

(i) Personal data will be processed by Basketball Incubation employees only on a need-to-know basis and solely for evaluating eligibility of Applicant to participate in the Program, its implementation and safeguarding the health and safety of the participants in the Program. CAFF employees will have access to the personal data only on a need-to-know basis for arranging the transportation of participants to and from the Program's venues and workshops.

(ii) Each said partner (Basketball Incubation, CAFF, Nike, Vioiatriki Wellness and ACG) will, in their role as independent data controllers and subject to their own privacy policies, process personal data under B. a) (iv) above, where applicable, for the promotion of the Foundation's activation (CAFF), for the promotion of their sponsorship (Nike) and for the promotion of their collaboration (all partners), and may, for the purposes referred to herein, assign the execution of specific processing of the data

(such as to photographers and video editors for the creation of the audio-visual material, and so on) to third parties – collaborators who shall be bound by their respective contracts or other legal obligations setting out their confidentiality obligations and who shall process the data, as data processors, exclusively in order to provide their services to the assigning partner and not for their own benefit.

(iii) Personal data may be transferred to any competent public bodies and authorities (e.g., judicial courts, prosecutors, tax authorities etc.) upon a respective request or order issued therefrom.

(iv) Lawyers, law firms, court bailiffs in order to protect the legal interests of Basketball Incubation and CAFF.

F. Information of Transfers of Personal Data Outside the European Economic Area (EEA) and the United Kingdom (UK)

No transfer of personal data outside the EEA or the UK will take place.

Nevertheless, should any personal data processed by the Academy and/or its partners be transferred to or accessed to by other entities of the same company group which are located outside the EU or the UK in non-adequate countries (as determined by the EU Commission and the UK Government), such transfer shall be regulated by the relevant intra-group data transfer agreements in compliance with the provisions of Chapter V of the GDPR.

G. Rights of Data Subjects

Each relevant data subject (participant athlete/junior coach, parent or legal guardian acting on their own behalf or on behalf of their child or custodee in case of a minor) holds the right, under the terms and conditions set out here in accordance with the relevant Legislation, to request from each respective Data Controller, as defined herein, access to, and rectification or erasure or restriction of the processing of data concerning them, as well as the right to transfer data to another data controller. Especially with reference to the right of data rectification, the Applicant/participant holds the right to request from each respective Data Controller, as defined herein, without undue delay, the rectification any inaccurate personal data concerning him/her by submitting the relevant documentation, proving the need for rectification. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the Applicant/participant has the right to have incomplete or invalid personal data completed or rectified, including by means of providing a supplementary statement, only if this is completed before Program submission date deadlines.

Where the legal basis of data processing is consent, the related data subject holds the right to withdraw this consent at any time, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent given before its withdrawal. Please note that any withdrawal of consent may prevent the participation of the participant in the Program.

The data subject may exercise the above rights as follows:

- If to Basketball Incubation: league@eurohoops.net

- If to CAFF: info@caff.foundation

- If to other Academy partners: see their respective privacy policies for contact details.

The data subject holds the right to lodge a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (1-3 Kifissias Avenue, Athens 115 23, Greece, Tel: +30 210 64 75 600, Email: contact@dpa.gr), if they believe that their personal data rights are being violated.

Basketball Incubation and CAFF, as well as all partners have taken all appropriate technical and organizational measures to safeguard the implementation of the legislation and the suitable security level for Applicants'/participants' personal data.

7. Other terms and conditions

- The present Terms and Conditions together with the appendices govern the process of participating in the Program as a whole, and each participant accepts these Terms and Conditions by signing and submitting their respective applications and documents.
- CAFF reserves the right to modify, update, or amend these terms and conditions at its own discretion. Notice of any changes will be communicated to members via appropriate channels, such as email or posted notices within the academy.
- If any provision of these Terms and Conditions is invalid, then that provision will be removed from the Terms without affecting the rest and the remaining provisions of the Terms and Conditions will continue to be valid and enforceable.
- These Terms and Conditions are governed by Greek law and any disputes arising out these Terms and Conditions shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Athens.
